

2010 MONTAUK & STAMFORD TRIATHLON PRESS RELEASES: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kalley goes Back to Back : Twinlab-Full Throttle Endurance Racing Team Continues to Dominate

New York, New York, June 28, 2010 – Andrew Kalley, coach for the Full Throttle Endurance training program at Chelsea Piers, won the Mighty Montauk Triathlon June 12 in Montauk, Long Island, then just 2 weeks later wins the Overall title at the Stamford, C.T. Triathlon. He is also hoping to qualify for Worlds at Age Group National Championship in Alabama in late September. He won the West Point Triathlon in 2008 and won his division in the USAT Club Nationals.

This win is Kalley's second and third overall first place finishes in his short yet accomplished career. Kalley was a key contributor to the Full Throttle Team dominance at both events. Full Throttle brought 41 athletes to compete in Montauk. Of the 41 athletes that competed overall, 15 Full Throttle team athletes won or placed in their age group. Dave Powers was 2nd Overall to Kalley. Alison Lind took 3rd overall for the female athlete's. Others of note were Division winners Bill Kelly, Scott Berlinger, Jessica Mullin, and Kyla Burruss.

At the Stamford Triathlon, besides the Kalley Overall win, Allison Lind was the 3rd Overall female. Luke Tuddenham was 8th Overall and second in his division. Maria Mahn was a division winner. Tom Slon and Bryan Touhey were second and third in their division.

Full Throttle Racing Team that has won the USA Triathlon Team Championship title 3 years in a row, (2007 St. Louis, 2008 Las Vegas, 2009 Oklahoma City). The Team has also won both the NYC Triathlon Team Title and South Beach Triathlon Team Title consecutively in 2008 and 2009. The Team is headquartered at the Sports Center health club at Chelsea Piers in New York City and is 120 people strong nationally.

The Full Throttle team is led by Scott Berlinger, a nationally acclaimed coach who has many personal accomplishments, including the more than 20 first or second place division finishes in various triathlons – including the US Nationals, NYC Triathlon, the Sobe Triathlon, Mighty Montauk and West Point Triathlons, and was named a Top Five Trainer in America by Men's Journal magazine.
